STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

(For issuance of an arrest warrant or summons)

I state that on 08/01, 2019 while exercising my duties as a law enforcement officer in the Judicial District of Arizona At approximately 0040 hours Grand Canyon Regional Communications Center (dispatch) broadcast that residents at 30 Coconino Street, Grand Canyon AZ were reporting that an intoxicated male was trying to steal their property, and that they currently had him detained. Myself, Officer Nathan Snyder, Officer Sara Shoemaker, and Officer John Gibbs responded.

On scene I met with one of the residents later identified as Devin I asked Devin where the man was and he pointed at a Native American male, later identified as Ryan B. MANYGOATS, who was standing between the home and a camping trailer. MANYGOATS was attempting to remove a bicycle that was locked and tethered.

MANYGOATS had difficulty maintaining his balance while walking and while standing still. He had to lean against the trailer to stand, and stumbled when he attempted to walk. MANYGOATS had to be supported by myself and officer Snyder when we conducted a frisk. MANYGOATS could not put on his flip flop's without assistance and then immediately stepped out of them. MANYGOATS slurred his speech when he spoke. MANYGOATS did not know what day it was, could not tell me what time it was, and incorrectly believed that he was on Bourbon Street, which was approximately 1/2 mile away. MANYGOATS believed he was at his own residence. When I asked him where he lived MANYGOATS said "here".

I could smell the odor of alcohol coming from MANYGOATS. MANYGOATS admitted that he had been drinking. Additionally, I noticed that MANYGOATS had a tattoo on the back of his leg, when asked about the tattoo MANYGOATS initially denied having one, and when he remembered he did have a tattoo could not tell me about it's design.

I administered a PBT with MANYGOATS utilizing a Lifecoc FC10plus at approximately 0150 hours. The PBT displayed a reading of 0.276 BrAC and confirmed that alcohol was present.

Officer Snyder and Shoemaker spoke with Devin and his spouse, Maria The Chapmans said that they were sleeping when they heard a noise outside. Maria looked out the window and saw MANYGOATS attempting to take one of their bicycles. Maria and Devin went outside and confronted MANYGOATS, MANYGOATS responded by threatening to kill them if they didn't get out of his way.

I placed MANYGOATS under arrest for 36 CFR 2.35(c) Presence in a park area when under the influence of alcohol to a degree that may endanger oneself or another.

Body camera footage was recorded.
